THE FOUNDATION

The Royal Academy of Music was founded in 1822 through the exertions of John Fane (Lord Burghersh), Eleventh Earl of Westmorland, and began its public work in 1823 under the direct patronage of His Majesty King George IV.

The objects of the Academy, as set forth in its charter, are 'to promote the cultivation of the science of music, and to afford facilities for attaining perfection in it by assisting with general instruction all persons desirous of acquiring a knowledge thereof'.

HISTORY

On 23rd June 1830, eight years after its foundation, His Majesty King George IV further showed his interest in the school by granting it a royal charter. His successors, King William IV, Queen Victoria, King Edward VII, King George V, King Edward VIII and King George VI, were also Patrons of the Academy. The present sovereign, Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth, has indicated her interest in the institution by heading the list of Royal Patrons.

The work of the institution is carried out in the building designed by Sir Ernest George, A.R.A., and Alfred B. Yeates, F.R.I.B.A., which was erected in 1910, in Marylebone Road. In addition to its classrooms and many studios for private tuition, the Royal Academy contains a very fine concert hall (the Duke's Hall), accommodating a full orchestra and a choir of about 250, together with an audience of about 500. There is also a well-equipped theatre seating about 200 people, and a lecture hall.

The library, which includes many private gifts and bequests, is a famous one, and is available to professors and students for reference and study during term; books and music may be borrowed. The Angelina Goetz Library contains about 250 full orchestral scores of modern works; the Sir Henry Wood Library includes nearly 3000 orchestral scores, with 2000 complete sets of orchestral parts, besides books on musical subjects. This library was presented to the Royal Academy by Sir Henry in 1938 in commemoration of his jubilee. In accordance with his wishes the library is available under certain conditions to artists and other persons interested in orchestral music.

In addition to its collection of music and pictures, the Academy has received from generous friends of music many valuable instruments, which are allotted for the use of talented students approved by the Committee of Management under conditions framed by the donors.

THE ACADEMIC YEAR

The Academic Year is divided into three terms, Michaelmas, Lent and Midsummer, with intervening vacations at Christmas, Easter and Summer. Dates of the terms in the Academic Year 1967-8 are:

Michaelmas Term: 18th September-10th December

Lent Term: 8th January-30th March

Midsummer Term: 29th April-20th July

Orchestral playing, choral singing, chamber music, orchestration, opera, and choir training (for students taking organ as their principal or second study) are available without extra fee for those who are considered to be ready for these studies. All students must take a full course of instruction. Courses and studies are subject to the approval of the Principal. The basic normal course is of three years' duration, but extensions may be granted in suitable cases (see page 12). There are no facilities for part-time study, or correspondence courses.

NORMAL CURRICULUM

The course includes weekly lessons and classes as follows:

A principal study (sixty minutes),

A second study (thirty minutes),

Harmony (thirty minutes, or sixty minutes in classes of two),

Aural training and sight singing (sixty minutes),

History of music,

which may be varied at the discretion of the Principal.

GRADUATE OF THE ROYAL SCHOOLS OF MUSIC [G.R.S.M.], LONDON

A three-year course, including practical subjects, harmony and counterpoint, keyboard harmony and history, offers a complete basic music training, and leads to the Diploma 'Graduate of the Royal Schools of Music, London' which is awarded to successful candidates after an examination held jointly with the Royal College of Music. The Diploma is accepted by the Ministry of Education for the status of qualified teacher and is recognised by the Burnham Committee as entitling the holder to receive an addition to salary on graduate basis. The training can only be begun in the Michaelmas Term each year, and students must be eighteen years old by the 31st December in the year in which they begin the course. Candidates must have obtained a minimum of five 'O' level passes in the G.C.E., or an equivalent that is acceptable to the Ministry of Education. (A Grade 1 Pass in the C.S.E. is rated as the equivalent of a G.C.E. 'O' level Pass.) Candidates must have a good keyboard facility, and are generally required to take a keyboard instrument as their principal or second study. Certain Academy examinations have to be passed at the end of each year's training, and students who fail to qualify in these may be required to repeat a year of the course. At the end of the final year candidates are required to undergo a practical keyboard examination and a paperwork examination in musical history and other subjects. For further particulars see special syllabus. A subsequent year of training at a University Department of Education is available to holders of the G.R.S.M. Diploma, and the successful completion of this course entitles students to a Music Teacher's Certificate.

UNIVERSITY DEGREES

Students may prepare for degrees in Music of Durham or Dublin Universities. Applicants must satisfy the minimum entrance requirements of the University concerned and are required to attend the normal entrance examination at the Academy. All students being prepared for a University degree are required to take the G.R.S.M. Course, in addition, and will normally be expected to remain at the Academy for four years.

POST-GRADUATE TRAINING

Suitably qualified post-graduate students may, at the Principal's discretion, be admitted for a one-year course of study at the Academy. Application should be made in the normal way.

JUNIOR SCHOOL

A limited number of Junior students are admitted. These students, who must show exceptional promise, are expected to seek entry as full students when they reach the age of sixteen. As Junior students, they are normally expected to attend one afternoon a week to receive individual instruction in their principal study, and to attend classes in Elements and Aural Training.

ANNUAL EXAMINATIONS

These take place at the end of the Midsummer Term.

CONCERTS

The Fortnightly, Chamber, Choral, and Orchestral Concerts held in the Duke's Hall give facilities for platform experience and provide evidence of the progress made by students.

Students who obtain the Recital Diploma are given facilities for solo recitals.

ORCHESTRAS

Students are admitted to these after passing the appropriate audition.

ENSEMBLE CLASSES

There are several classes of varying standards, enabling students to obtain practice in ensemble playing of all kinds. Special concerts and other performances take place during the academic year.

OPERA CLASS

The opera class exists for the training of singing students who are considered to possess the necessary qualifications. Operas are rehearsed, in preparation for performances, on lines similar to those prevailing in professional opera companies. Performances are normally given with alternative casts. In addition to the opportunity of performing opera and increasing their repertoire, students are given tuition in the interpretation of operatic music and in stage movement. The more advanced students are also given opportunities of acquiring experience in stage-managing and producing. Conducting students are offered facilities for répétiteur work and rehearsal conducting.

CONDUCTORS' COURSE

This course extends over ten weeks per term and includes:

- Principal study (sixty minutes per week, which may be divided between two instruments),
- Practice conducting with orchestra,

Aural training and sight singing (sixty minutes per week in class),
Written work (sixty minutes per week in classes of two),
Classes in technique and repertoire, instrumentation, score-reading and analysis.

REVIEW WEEKS

One week towards the end of each of the Michaelmas and Lent Terms is set aside for special lectures on subjects of general artistic and scientific interest, with the object of broadening the outlook of students.

SCHOLARSHIPS AND PRIZES

There are over two hundred scholarships, exhibitions, and prizes available to students, and the corpus of each fund is registered with the Official Trustee of Charitable Funds. The tenure of scholarships varies, but most scholarships afford three years' free tuition. They are awarded subject to the acceptance by the candidate of the general rules and regulations, and the curriculum arranged by the Principal. Before entering the Academy each scholar or exhibitioner is required to sign an agreement binding him or her to obey the rules of the Academy, and to remain for the entire term of the scholarship, except when prevented by illness or some other exceptional or unavoidable cause. Details of scholarships offered for competition in any one academic year are obtainable in January by application to the Secretary General. Competitions are held at the Academy in the Lent Term. The closing date for applications in 1967 is Monday 12th February.

STUDENTSHIP

Students are admitted at the beginning of the Michaelmas Term, normally for a three-year course, which can be extended to four, five, or six years. The Principal may also accept a student for a two-year course. Under certain circumstances a one-year course can be provided for those working on a post-graduate basis, but not for ordinary students. Students are required to take the full curriculum. Students who have completed three years (nine terms) and have passed Division IV in their principal study may, with the permission of the Principal, take a reduced curriculum with a corresponding reduction of fees. The allocation of students to professors is at the discretion of the Principal. Any change in a student's curriculum, whether of subject or professor, must be approved by the Principal or Director of Studies in writing; students are not permitted to negotiate directly with professors with reference to such changes.

APPLICATION FOR ADMISSION

Application for admission, on the official entry form together with the entrance fee of three guineas, must reach the Secretary General not later than 1st January. If the applicant is not considered eligible for the entrance examination the entrance fee will be refunded. All candidates are required to attend an entrance examination at the Academy: they will be expected to perform two contrasting pieces of their own choice in their principal study, and one piece of their own choice in their second study; they will also be given sight-reading, ear tests and questions on general musicianship. Students of composition should send to the Secretary General examples of their work at least one week before the date of the entrance examination. An accompanist will be provided.

Entrance examinations for entry in the Michaelmas Term 1967 will be held at the Academy during the week beginning 22nd April.

Entrance examinations for overseas applicants are usually held during the two weeks immediately preceding the Michaelmas Term, in order to avoid unnecessary travel. Candidates who are offered such an examination are asked to contact the Academy on their arrival in London, so that suitable arrangements can be made. It must be understood that the offer of an entrance examination in no way guarantees admittance to the Academy.

Applicants who are unable to attend the entrance examination because of ill-health are required to submit a doctor's certificate; in such cases every effort will be made to arrange another appointment. If thirty days' notice is given, half the entrance fee will be refunded to candidates who wish to withdraw their applications.

EDUCATIONAL REQUIREMENTS FOR ADMISSION

Students who have not obtained a General Certificate of Education, and wish to enter the Royal Academy with a view to a performer's career, should provide themselves with a statement from their Headmaster or Headmistress showing that they have reached a standard of general education appropriate to their age and special talents. Students wishing to take the G.R.S.M. course must have obtained the requisite number of passes in the G.C.E., as outlined on page 10.

FEES

The entrance fee is three guineas, which must be sent with the entry form to the Secretary General when application for admission is made.

The tuition fees are as follows:

Normal curriculum	£210 a year
G.R.S.M. course	£210 a year

Students who enter at half-term pay half the tuition fees for that term, but the full entrance fee of three guineas.

All fees are payable in advance at the beginning of each term and at least half a term's notice of the removal of a student is required. Failing the receipt of such notice by the Secretary General, the fees for half a term are payable. The Committee of Management reserves the right to increase the tuition fees at the beginning of an academic year after due notice has been given.

OPTIONAL EXTRA SUBJECTS

Any of the subjects taught in the Academy may be taken as an extra study, subject to the permission of the Principal or the Director of Studies, at the following fees (payable in advance):

	Per Term
Additional principal study—	£	s.	d.
One lesson per week (30 minutes)	22	0	0
Two lessons per week (30 minutes each)	41	0	0
One lesson per week (30 minutes)—in lieu of second study	17	5	0
Two lessons per week (30 minutes each)—in lieu of second study	34	5	0
Languages—French, German, Italian (30 minutes) ..	9	17	6
All additional second studies—
One lesson per week (30 minutes)	14	14	0

ACCOMMODATION

The Academy is non-residential, but the Lady Superintendent will give advice about accommodation in London.

PRACTISING FACILITIES

It is not normally possible for students to practise at the Academy during the day time, but rooms are available between 6 p.m. and 8.45 p.m. from Monday to Friday during term.

ATTENDANCE

While care is taken to avoid unnecessary attendance on the part of students, it is most desirable that full advantage should be taken of the opportunities which the Royal Academy offers. Students should be prepared to attend on three or four days in each week.

If students are unavoidably prevented from attending any lesson or class, they are required to give notice in advance direct to the professors concerned. In cases of illness other than of a minor character, notice must be sent to the Secretary General, together with a medical certificate.

GENERAL REGULATIONS

- I. All orders for the government and regulation of the Academy shall be issued by the Governing Body.
- II. Students shall be admitted at the beginning of each Michaelmas Term.
- III. Students shall be required, on entering the Academy, to sign an Agreement binding themselves to keep all the rules of the Academy, to obey those in authority over them, to carry out the course of study appointed by the authorities of the Academy, and to attend for that purpose during at least three consecutive terms. The father or guardian of a student will be required to sign a minute of approval, appended to the Agreement, binding him to pay fees for the said three terms.
- IV. No student is permitted to study, outside the Academy, any subject which he or she may be studying in the Academy.
- V. Students are expected to attend all lessons and classes regularly and punctually. Those failing to record at least 75% attendance will not be eligible to enter for the Annual Examinations.
